Gallery Presentation & Discussion -This Thursday, May 1st from 6:00 to 7:30 p.m.

Please join us for a gallery presentation and discussion with Christina Burke, Curator of Native American and Non-Western Art at the Philbrook Museum of Art. This is a great opportunity to address the curator responsible for this collection one on one! The Eugene B. Adkins Collection is widely considered one of the finest collections of Native American and Southwestern art ever assembled by a private collector.

6528 E. 51st ST (in The Farm Shopping Center), Tulsa, OK 74145 | 918.664.4732 | www.lovettsgallery.com

When:

Thursday, May 1st from 6:00 to 7:30pm.

Where:

Lovetts Gallery, 6528 E. 51st ST (in The Farm Shopping Center), Tulsa, OK 74145

From 6:00 to 7:30 p.m. this Thursday we hope that you will join us for an excellent opportunity to meet one-on-one with the curator responsible for the Adkins Collection. Christina Burke will be on hand to deliver an exciting presentation and lead a discussion on the Adkins Collection and what it means for the changing artistic landscape of Oklahoma. This is an amazing time to be living in Oklahoma, so please come by and explore this collection with us.

Also available during the presentation, are a few pieces by renowned Santo Domingo potter Robert Tenorio, whose work is currently on display in Adkins Preview in the rotunda at the Philbrook Museum of Art.

We hope to see you Thursday evening!
